COMPANY NEWS

VSPRY has secured a significant contract to licence its technology to one of the largest healthcare conglomerates in the Philippines.

Mark Harper, VSPRY's CEO said the contract will result in the virtualisation of healthcare cards for up to 5 million end users, and will be followed by the deployment of VSPRY's digital health wallet that makes healthcare more accessible and affordable.

The Philippines contract follows the opening of an office in Singapore to support the company's Asian focus.
